

W. Deha's Single, His Steal of Second and Henshaw's Bobble Brings Defeat to Punahou.

(From Sunday Advertiser.)

Oahu 2, Punahou 1.
With Johnny Williams' little brother Willie pitching air-tight ball, the Oahus kept pace in the later-inning series with the Asahis and All-Service teams yesterday afternoon at Athletic Park by defeating Al Castle's Punahou outfit by a score of 2 to 1, after eleven innings of playing.

It was truly a great day for brother Willie, and he pitched a creditable game of ball. His team tried to give him classy support, but on three or four occasions they slipped a bit and put Willie in a hole. He weathered the storm, though, and with the aid of Willie Deha and an error by First Baseman Henshaw of the Puns got away with the extra run of the game. In fact it was errors principally that gave the Oahus both their tallies.

Castle, who heaved for the Puns, did not, too, in the heating line, and though his safely eleven times he kept those bingles far enough apart to be of little account, but for a bobble by Catcher Lyman and another by the first sacker.

Behind Castle the team hit well but unfortunately, and once failed to turn three hits in a row, with none out, into anything that looked like a run.

Oahu First to Score.

Oahu broke into the run column in their half of the fourth inning. W. Deha, opening the round, poled a safety to right field, but Willie became frisky around first base and was nailed off the bag by Pitcher Castle. Franco gathered a hit to left and a moment later stole second. Kauli poled one to center, sending Franco to third. He tried for second on the hit, and when Lyman took the return peg of the ball and heaved it far into center field, Franco crossed the plate.

Punahou knotted up the score in the eighth. With two in the hole and Lyman at first base, W. Hoogs hit one far out to left field. He tore around the bases like wildfire, pulling up at third only to have Umpire Stayton call the hit foul. Some of the fans say the umpire was in error, while others say the ball was foul. He was in a direct line with the sphere when it hit the earth and his word is law. It was hard luck for the Puns at that, for Willie Hoogs fanned on the next ball when he took his turn at bat again.

In the eighth inning Henshaw lifted one to left good for three bases, scoring on Iard's single after Castle had gone out at first.

Helped Williams in Ninth.

Johnny's brother was in a deep hole in the ninth for several minutes, but As Toon and Kauli pulled him out. Derby, opening the round, poled a liner to right field, and when Lyman and W. Hoogs bent out infield hits the bases were filled. Henshaw died on a high foul to Ah Toon; Kauli grabbed Castle's hit and killed off Derby at the plate, while Williams stopped Iard's bounder and winged him out at first.

In the eleventh Willie Deha hit safely in center and then stole second. Franco hit to Henshaw, who fumbled the ball long enough for Deha to hit the plate with the winning run.

NINETEEN HITS BRING VICTORY TO SOLDIERS

ASAHI'S TAKE FLYING START IN RACE FOR ADVERTISER CUP BUT ALL-SERVICE MEN CLOUT BALL FOR EIGHTEEN TALLIES.

(From Monday Advertiser.)

Manager Abe's disorganized Asahis slipped out of the lead in the race for the Inter-Island title and The Advertiser Cup yesterday at Athletic Park, meeting defeat in the hands of the All-Service team by the score of 18 to 6.

A fair-sized crowd of the faithful were on hand when the umpire gave the sign to play, but little or nothing was handed to them in the way of baseball, especially by the Asahis. Manager Abe's team simply fell off the pedestal as front runners and in two innings were prodding along hopelessly in the rear. In fact, barring their flash in the opening round when they scored two runs, the little brown men were decidedly off color in their ball playing.

As to the other fellows, they slugged the offerings of T. Moriama to a fare-thee-well and a total of nineteen swats netted them eighteen runs. Of course the ten errors the Asahis sandwiched in with T. Moriama's wild pitches helped but the soldiers were all to the good yesterday and would have won hands down even without the assistance of the errors.

Abe's bunch were the first to land at the platter. Araki and Nishi were passed to first base and a passed ball advanced both men a base. With two out, T. Moriama poled a double to left center field and it was easy sailing to the rubber for Araki and Nishi.

Then came the soldiers with four runs and a bobble by Araki at third was responsible for all the damage. Gramith and Williamson were easy outs but Hixenbaugh and Willis poled singles to the outfield. Renewal gave Araki an easy chance, but he bobbed the ball, filling the bases. Mason was safe because no one fielded his hit and Hixenbaugh scored. Byrnes was hit by a pitched ball, sending Willis to the plate, and when Swinton singled to leftfield Renewal and Mason romped.

Still the Run Came.

In the second round Gramith stopped one with his left knee, going to second when Williamson sacrificed. Hixenbaugh singled and so did Willis and Renewal and these hits with an error by T. Moriama allowed Gramith and Hixenbaugh to reach the rubber.

Mason opened the third for the soldier crew by fanning, but Byrnes, Swinton, Lawson, Gramith and Williamson hit safely and these with an error at short and a man hit by pitcher sent three runners over the platter.

Through the fourth inning the soldier boys rested up as far as runs were concerned, but in the fifth a single by Gramith, a double by Williamson and a triple by Hixenbaugh gave the All-Service outfit two more tallies.

During the sixth and seventh innings the soldiers gathered but one hit, but in their half of the eighth they made enough to win almost any old ball game. Hixenbaugh and Willis gathered hits here and both scored on an error by Oshika at short of Renewal's hit and one by Nishi behind the plate. Renewal also scoring on the later play. Byrnes got the fourth run of the inning when he went to first on a missed third strike, to second and third on a wild throw to rightfield by Catcher Nishi and to the rubber on a wild pitch. Lawson gathered a hit in this round and went to the rubber on Gramith's hit to left field which was fozzled by Kuzmaki. Gramith took third on the error and when Araki failed to hold a peg from the catcher, Gramith romped home. Williamson ended the agony with a grounder to first base.

Asahis Gather a Few.

Two hits in the fourth inning, one by Yamasiro and another by Komeyo, a sacrifice by S. Uyeno and Williamson's error gave the Asahis two runs and three hits, a sacrifice fly by S. Uyeno and Lawson's error gave them two more in the sixth.

Will Make a Start for Club by Building Quarters on a Modest Scale.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)

HILO, March 6.—With the lure of the fine weather constantly present, Captain Cook's Indoor Yacht Club is no longer able to satisfy the cravings of those good men of Hilo in whom athletic endeavoring instincts call loudly for a viking life on the sea. As a result those who are interested in the actual launching of the Hilo Yacht Club as something more than a mere name with a constitution and bylaws are now getting busy, and this time it looks as if there would really be something doing.

When the club was first formed the organizers had ambitious ideas, including plans for the building of an elegant clubhouse, the purchase of boats and the like. Just as the plans were about to be carried into execution the harsh weather set in and the cold weather sent in a state of hibernation.

Will Have Home, Anyhow.

The organizers have given up the idea of trying to carry out their original elaborate plans, and they are now planning to cut their coat to fit their cloth, and to build a building within the means which they have on hand. The proposition will be submitted at a meeting of those interested, which will take place next Tuesday evening. The majority of the members agree with the officers, the construction of a boat house, as good as can be secured for the money available, will be begun immediately.

"We have figured out that the best thing we can do is to go ahead with what funds we have on hand, rather than to keep on waiting for something to turn up," said A. M. Webster, the father and mother of the yacht club to whose energy and enthusiasm the club to a very large extent owes its being. "The initiation fees and assessments which we can count on will amount to about fifteen hundred dollars, and with that we can build a boat house which will do for the present. We are planning to build it on the approach to the old Wilder wharf, which has been under lease to the club from the Territory for some time past. While the building which we will be able to pay for at this time will not be as convenient as what we had first planned to get, it will answer all present needs, and we can build it in such a manner that we will be able to add on to it later on as the club prospers and grows wealthy. Of course, the proposition will be laid before the members, and unless a majority of them approve thereof we cannot carry it out."

Woman Criticizes Efforts to Throw Responsibility for Accident on Dead Aviator.

SAN DIEGO, February 21.—Bitter denunciation of the methods and types of machines used by the army birdmen at North Island are still being heard. A woman relative of one of the army aviators who lately lost his life at the North Island camp yesterday said: "Almost two weeks have passed since the death of Lieut. Henry B. Post, and his many friends here and in other parts are naturally grieved at his death and the criminal negligence on the part of congress and army authorities who permit these accidents to continue unexplained. "Those who witnessed the terrible accident stated definitely at the time that it was in no way the fault of Lieutenant Post. They are now attempting to create the impression that it was his fault, although the Wright hydroplane was seen to collapse in the air. I think that this is contemptible. "There are several married army fliers who at some time or other have flown this dangerous type of machine. They do not make a practice of flying it now. They are heroes to their wives—to those who do not know they are 'ham aviators.' I can name several so-called authorities who are no more competent to give expert opinion on the safest type of machine to be used than a hackdriver is."

LAD'S DEATH MAY CAUSE REFORM

Investigation at Hilo Shows That Willie Tavares Was Struck by Auto Driven by Woman Without License.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)

HILO, March 5.—As a result of the killing of Willie Tavares, an eight-year-old Portuguese boy, by a car driven by an unlicensed Japanese woman, who claims she was learning how to drive, a coroner's jury last week recommended that persons so learning be prohibited from practicing within the city limits.

At the same time the police make the claim that the chauffeur examiners hamper them in their function of protecting the public by issuing chauffeur's certificates to persons who have no right to have them.

The accident took place last Thursday afternoon on the Volcano road close to the residence of Manager Forbes of the Waiakae plantation. The auto was driven by a Japanese woman, named Matsuda Seichi, but with her was a Japanese man, named Y. Iwamoto, who was the regular driver of the automobile in which they were. The car was going towards Olan, and the boy was out of a number of school children, who were returning from school and who were playing tag on the road as they went along.

The woman and the man both testified that as they approached the children, they sounded the horn, whereupon the children scattered out of the way, but that when they were right behind the Tavares boy, who had his back to the auto, another boy tried to "tag" him, and in his effort to avoid being tagged, the unfortunate little fellow stepped back, directly in front of the machine, which knocked him down and killed him. The woman testified that she was learning how to drive, and that she had no chauffeur's certificate.

The coroner's jury decided that it might do some good to have attention called to the abuse of the streets by incompetent auto drivers, and the verdict read that the death was the result of "hemorrhage caused by a blow on the head accidentally inflicted with a passenger automobile while being driven by Matsuda Seichi, an unlicensed driver. This jury would recommend that the proper authorities take the permitting of persons learning how to drive automobiles on streets within the city limits be discontinued."

Deputy Sheriff Martin, who has shown considerable zeal in the matter of enforcing the automobile ordinance, agrees with the jury that it is undesirable to have chauffeur pupils endangering the lives and limbs of an unprotected community by allowing them to practice where there is much traffic. He points out, further, that in enforcing the law the police at times labor under peculiar difficulties.

"You might do some good by calling attention to the fact that some persons who have no right to have chauffeur's certificates, are given them nevertheless by the examiners," said Martin. "Take, for instance, the case of several youngsters who are below the age specified by the ordinance, but who have been given them in spite of that. What are the police to do, especially such offenses come under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court? Possibly some of these young ones can drive as well as many of their elders, but it certainly prevents the proper enforcement of the ordinance when children under the age specified by the ordinance are given certificates by the examiners."

Sultan of Turkey Advises Sultan of Jolo to Have Subjects Preserve Islam Faith.

MANILA, February 15.—"Observe peace throughout and cultivate friendly relations with all the elements in the islands," was the substance of the message of the Sultan of Turkey, delivered to the Sultan of Jolo, Jamalulu Kiram, by Esaj Mohammad Veji, Shihul Islam, who was sent expressly by the Turkish sovereign to the Philippines to that end. Esaj Mohammad further advised Jamalulu Kiram to tell this part of the globe to stop the tumultuous and good order throughout the Mindanao and Jolo districts, and to see that no one transgresses the laws of the government or the principles of the Islam faith. Theft and murder will no longer disturb the islands of the south if the faithful will adhere to the message of the Sultan.

The message was delivered at the house of Datto Gugay, Zamboanga, in the presence of Hadji Panglima Tahil, Shiek Masuan, Shiek Musuan, Shiek Mustafa Ahmed, Shiek Said and a great number of panditas and others of prominence in Mindanao and Jolo, January 28 last. The Sultan, Jamalulu Kiram, promised to try to carry out the wishes of the Sultan of Turkey.

When Esaj Mohammad arrived in Jolo Kiram, he declared that no political question involved his coming to the Philippines. He is now in Manila to see the Carnival and at the same time to pay his homage to the authorities in the capital. He arrived here a day ago with Mayor Finley, former governor of Zamboanga.

Among others present were Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Henriquez, Mrs. Lucy K. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Bruce Cartwright Jr., Mr. Forrest, D. K. Hoppli, Miss Ruth Wayson Stacker, A. L. Castle, Mrs. R. W. Shingle, John C. Lane and Eli J. Crawford.
